

FIRST FANDOM EXPERIENCE PRESENTS

THE VISUAL HISTORY OF SCIENCE FICTION FANDOM

VOLUME TWO:
1940

SUPPLEMENT

Full Facsimiles of 29 Extended Articles as They Originally Appeared

COMPILED BY DAVID RITTER AND DANIEL RITTER

CONTENTS

---

The Oklahoma Institute of Private Opinion by Jack Speer . . . 6

Jack Speer conducted a series of surveys of fandom beginning in 1937 and published the results as a one-shot in May 1940. A selection of this artifact appears on page 10 of The Visual History of Science Fiction Fandom, Volume Two.

---

Visit to LASFL by Walter Sullivan . . . 16

Walter Sullivan recounted a trip he took to visit the Los Angeles Science Fiction League. Published in Spaceways, Volume 2, Number 4, April 1940. The LASFL is covered on pages 108–115 of The Visual History of Science Fiction Fandom, Volume Two.

---

A Night at the Tower by Robert W. Lowndes as Satyricus . . . 19

Robert W. Lowndes wrote a five-page play that paints a surrealistic picture of a typical evening at the Ivory Tower. Published in The Science Fiction Fan, Volume 5, Number 4, November 1940. An illustrated version of the play begins on page 161 of The Visual History of Science Fiction Fandom, Volume Two.

---

A Month's Journeyings by Louis Russell Chauvenet . . . 24

Louis Russell Chauvenet penned a three-page account of an ambitious bicycle trip that spanned several states. Published in Detours, Volume 1, Number 3, August 1940. A selection of his story appears on page 197 of The Visual History of Science Fiction Fandom, Volume Two.

---

Assailing the Pro-Scientists by Damon Knight . . . 27

Damon Knight bombarded Raymond Van Houten and his pro-science movement in a two-page article published in The Damn Thing, Volume 1, Number 1, November 1940. A selection of the article appears on page 207 of The Visual History of Science Fiction Fandom, Volume Two.

---

Van Houten Says— by Raymond Van Houten . . . 29

Raymond Van Houten defended himself and the pro-science movement in response to the critical article by Damon Knight. Published in The Damn Thing, Volume 1, Number 2, December 1940.

---

Memories of a Chiconeer by Bob Tucker . . . 33

Bob Tucker, one of the organizers of Chicon, recorded his memories of the event. Published in Spaceways, Volume 2, Number 8, October 1940. Selections appear in the “Chicon—We Had Fun!” section, starting on page 276 of The Visual History of Science Fiction Fandom, Volume Two.

---

Chicon '40 Memoirs by Dale Tarr . . . 37

Dale Tarr recounted the Chicon in this detailed article. Published in Le Zombie, Number 32–33, September–October 1940. Selections appear in “Chicon—We Had Fun!” starting on page 276 of The Visual History of Science Fiction Fandom, Volume Two.

---

Pictures at a Convention by Milton A. Rothman . . . 41

Milton A. Rothman wrote several vignettes describing Chicon after losing his camera along with all the pictures he had taken. Published in Milty's Mag, Volume 1, Number 3, Fall 1940. A selection appears on page 278 of The Visual History of Science Fiction Fandom, Volume Two.

---

Chicon Boys & Girls Had Fun by Art Widner, Jr. . . . 44

Art Widner, Jr., wrote a detailed account of Chicon. Published in Fantasy News, Volume 5, Number 13, September 22, 1940. A selection appears on page 284 of The Visual History of Science Fiction Fandom, Volume Two.

---

Chicon Report by Art Widner, Jr. . . . 47

A continuation of Art Widner, Jr.'s account of Chicon from Fantasy News, Volume 5, Number 13. Published in Fantasy News, Volume 5, Number 14, September 29, 1940. Selections appear on page 299 of The Visual History of Science Fiction Fandom, Volume Two.

---

Stardust by Star-Treader by J. Chapman Miske . . . 49

J. Chapman Miske wrote about his experiences at Chicon. Spaceways, Volume 2, Number 8, October 1940. Selections appear on pages 284, 301, and 356 of The Visual History of Science Fiction Fandom, Volume Two.

---

What Does This Convention Mean? by Edward E. "Doc" Smith, Ph.D. . . . 52

The full transcript of E. E. "Doc" Smith's speech at Chicon. Published in Fanfare, Supplement One, July 1941. Selections appear on page 285 of The Visual History of Science Fiction Fandom, Volume Two.

---

Notes and Nuts on the Chicon by Bob Tucker . . . 58

Notes on Chicon by Bob Tucker. Published in The Fantasite, Volume 1, Number 1, November 1940. A selection appears on page 292 of The Visual History of Science Fiction Fandom, Volume Two.

---

Things I Saw & Heard There by Dale Tarr . . . 60

Dale Tarr detailed his experiences at the Chicon. Published in Le Zombie, Number 34, November 1940. Selections appear on pages 301, 307, and 356 of The Visual History of Science Fiction Fandom, Volume Two.

---

I Audit the Chicon by Bob Tucker . . . 63

Bob Tucker defended the handling of Chicon finances. Published in Fanfare, Volume 1, Number 6, April 1941. A selection appears on page 335 of The Visual History of Science Fiction Fandom, Volume Two.

---

From the Chicago Rocket Field by Erle M. Korshak . . . 66

Erle M. Korshak wrote about fan activity in Chicago. Published in Southern Star, Volume 1, Number 1, February 1941. Selections appear on page 337 of The Visual History of Science Fiction Fandom, Volume Two.

---

Expedition to Chicago by Ted Dikty . . . 70

Ted Dikty wrote an account of his travels to and experience at Chicon. Published in IFA Review, Volume 1, Number 2, September–October 1940. A selection appears on page 356 of The Visual History of Science Fiction Fandom, Volume Two.

---

Unrecounted Incident by Jack Speer . . . 73

Jack Speer recounted an interaction he had on the streets of Chicago during Chicon. Published in Ramblings, Number 9, December 1940.

---

Into Darkest Illinois by Walter Sullivan . . . 76

Walter Sullivan described a visit with Chicago fan Bob Tucker. Published in Le Zombie, Number 32–33, September–October 1940.

---

Unite or Fie! by Damon Knight . . . 78

Damon Knight articulated a case for a national fan organization. Published in Fanfare, Volume 1, Number 4, October 1940. A selection appears on page 374 of The Visual History of Science Fiction Fandom, Volume Two.

---

Blitzkrieg by Milton A. Rothman, Jack Speer, and Elmer Perdue . . . 82

Milton A. Rothman, Jack Speer, and Elmer Perdue produced a one-shot fanzine describing their mission to save a wayward FAPA mailing. Published in Fall 1940. A selection appears on page 386 of The Visual History of Science Fiction Fandom, Volume Two.

---

Why the Solaroids Abandoned the Proposed Newarkon! by Gerry de la Ree . . . 89

Gerry de la Ree penned an account of the Solaroid Club visiting the Futurians in New York, where they discussed the Newark Affair. Published in The Fantasite, Volume 1, Number 4, July 1941. This account is referenced on page 396 of The Visual History of Science Fiction Fandom, Volume Two.

---

Putting My Two Cents In by Erle M. Korshak . . . 92

Erle M. Korshak weighed in on the Newark Affair. Published as a one-shot in November, 1940. A selection appears on page 400 of The Visual History of Science Fiction Fandom, Volume Two.

---

The 1940 Philly Conference by William H. Groveman . . . 96

William H. Groveman gave an account of the Newark Affair. Published in Sun Spots, Volume 4, Number 3, February 1941. Selections appear on page 402 and 409 of The Visual History of Science Fiction Fandom, Volume Two.

---

II Cities Represented at 1940 Philly Conference! . . . 99

An uncredited author described the 1940 Philadelphia Conference. Published in Fantasy News, Volume 5, Number 21, November 17, 1940. Selections appear on page 408 of The Visual History of Science Fiction Fandom, Volume Two.

---

The Time Scanner by Bob Studley and Bob Tucker . . . 104

Bob Studley's The Time Scanner, Volume 1, Number 1, March 1941. The whole issue is presented here, which contains an article by Bob Studley about the Philadelphia Conference, an article by Bob Tucker about Chicon, and another satirical article by Tucker as Hoy Ping Pong. A selection of Bob Studley's article, "Editorial Scannings," appears on page 409 of The Visual History of Science Fiction Fandom, Volume 2.

---

The DENizen In The Lower Depths by Joseph Gilbert . . . 108

Joseph Gilbert, a fan from the southern US, wrote a description of where he lives. Published in Le Zombie, Number 32–33, September–October 1940. This material relates to content in the "Way Down South" section of The Visual History of Science Fiction Fandom, Volume Two starting on page 212.

---

Who's Who in Science Fiction Fandom by Samuel A. Moskowitz . . . 109

Samuel A. Moskowitz produced biographies for various prominent fans. Published in Golden Atom, Volume 1, Number 9, May 1940. This material relates to many of the fans discussed in The Visual History of Science Fiction Fandom, Volume Two.

---

Science Fiction is Escape Literature by Milton A. Rothman . . . 116

Milton A. Rothman spins a yarn with a message about the purpose of science fiction, in dialog with the Futurians. Published in Milty's Mag, number 1, March 1940.

---

Stuff About the Last Mailing by Milton A. Rothman . . . 118

An example of how Milton A. Rothman reviewed fanzines included in a FAPA mailing. Published in Milty's Mag, number 6, June 1941.

---

Disa and Data by Milton A. Rothman . . . 119

Milton A. Rothman reports his draft status and recounts a visit to the Purity Restaurant from a night at the 1940 Philadelphia convention. Published in Milty's Mag, number 8, December 1941.

---

Fan's Familiars by Bob Tucker . . . 121

Bob Tucker makes the case that every fan needs a familiar, and details the familiars already possessed by various fans. Published in The Sentinel, volume 1, number 1, September-October 1941.

---

Editorial by Harry Jenkins . . . 124

A meandering piece that includes a part of the story about the Purity Restaurant, which fans visited during the 1940 Philadelphia convention, that was cut from its original publication. STF-Hash, number 1, December 1941.

---

Editorial by Art Widner, Jr. . . . 125

Art Widner, Jr., weighs in on the trip to the Purity Restaurant during the 1940 Philadelphia convention. YHOS, number 3, June 1942..

---

Letters to Forrest J Ackerman . . . 126

Various letters written to Forrest J Ackerman from prominent fans, discussing everything from Ackermanese to the Newark Affair.

---

Letter from William Hamling to Jack Darrow . . . 135

William Hamling writes to Jack Darrow (Clifford Kornoelje) about reorganizing the Chicago Science Fiction League and Stardust. February 12, 1940.

---

Letter from William Hamling to Jack Darrow and Otto Binder . . . 136

William Hamling writes a letter addressed to Chicago fans Jack Darrow (Clifford Kornoelje) and Otto Binder in which he plots the acquisition of Frank R. Paul original paintings. August 30, 1940.

---

Letter from Mary Gnaedinger to Larry Farsaci . . . 138

Renowned pulp editr Mary Gnaedinger writes to Larry B. Farsaci lamenting the conclusion of his fanzine Golden Atom. November 13, 1940.